

Mutual NDA and Clean-Team Protocol

Mutual NDA & Clean-Team Protocol

Document ID	DR-003
Prepared by / owner	Priya Raman
Date	5 December 2025
Classification	Strictly Confidential — Project Atlas
Counterparties	VistaPort Media Inc. / Approved Bidder

This Mutual Non-Disclosure Agreement and Clean-Team Protocol (this “Agreement”) is entered into between VistaPort Media Inc. (“Discloser”) and the approved Bidder (“Recipient”) in connection with Project Atlas.

1. Confidential Information

“Confidential Information” means all non-public information disclosed by or on behalf of the Discloser, in any form, including the existence and terms of the proposed transaction, business and financial information, customer and user data, and all analyses derived therefrom.

2. Obligations of the Recipient

- Use the Confidential Information solely to evaluate the proposed transaction.
- Limit disclosure to representatives with a need to know who are bound by equivalent duties.
- Maintain at least the same degree of care as for the Recipient’s own confidential information, and in no event less than a reasonable degree of care.
- Not contact any employee, customer, supplier, regulator or adviser of the Discloser regarding the transaction without prior written consent.

3. Clean-Team Protocol (personal and competitively sensitive data)

Certain materials contain user-level personal data and competitively sensitive information. Access to such materials is restricted to nominated “Clean-Team Members”.

- Clean-Team Members must be identified in writing and countersign this protocol.
- User-level personal data may be reviewed only within the data room environment and may not be extracted, copied or combined with the Recipient’s own datasets.
- Outputs derived from clean-team materials may be shared with the broader deal team only in aggregated, anonymised or redacted form.
- On request or on termination, clean-team work papers must be destroyed or returned, subject to legal-hold and regulatory retention requirements.

4. Personal data and data protection

Each party shall comply with applicable data-protection laws. The parties acknowledge that the Discloser remains the controller of any personal data made available and that the Recipient processes such data only as a limited reviewer for the permitted purpose. Nothing in this Agreement requires the Discloser to disclose personal data in breach of law or of its obligations to data subjects or third parties.

5. Term, residuals and remedies

This Agreement remains in force for two (2) years from the date of last disclosure. The Recipient may use general knowledge, skills and experience retained in unaided memory (the “residuals”), provided this clause does not license use of personal data or any deliberate memorisation. The parties agree that damages may be inadequate and that injunctive relief may be sought for breach.

Execution copies are held by the Office of the General Counsel. Prepared by Priya Raman, General Counsel.