- Information is provided for diligence only and remains subject to the NDA.

5. Q&A protocol

Questions should be submitted through the Q&A; module and will be allocated to the relevant workstream. Responses are shared at the Company's discretion. A running log of questions and answers is maintained at DR-004. Bidders should not rely on oral statements; only written data room materials and Q&A; responses may be relied upon, subject to the terms of the definitive agreement.

6. Clean-team arrangements

Given the personal-data and competitively sensitive nature of certain materials (audience data, advertiser pricing and user-level metrics), access to those materials is restricted to nominated clean-team members who have countersigned the clean-team protocol. Clean-team outputs may be shared with the wider deal team only in aggregated or redacted form.
