Regional advertising sales update for Asia-Pacific, Q4 2025. Prepared by the APAC Desk for the SVP Global Advertising. Currency: USD unless stated; constant-currency growth noted where material.

1. Regional summary

APAC FY2025 advertising revenue	$612m (12% of group advertising)
Q4 2025 growth (YoY, reported)	+9.4%
Q4 2025 growth (constant currency)	+12.1%
FX headwind	JPY and IDR weakness reduced reported growth ~2.7pts

2. Markets

Market	FY25 rev $m	YoY (cc)	Commentary
Japan	188	+8%	FX headwind; strong retail and auto
Australia / NZ	126	+11%	Retail and travel recovery
Singapore (hub)	94	+14%	Finance and travel; regional HQ accounts
India	112	+18%	Fastest-growing; mobile-led
South Korea	92	+10%	Gaming and electronics

3. Key accounts

- Two regional retail holding groups expanded programmatic-guaranteed commitments for Q1.
- A Singapore-based financial-services account renewed on improved terms.
- Travel demand recovered strongly across the region into the holiday period.

4. Watch items

- FX volatility (JPY, IDR) remains the principal reported-growth risk.
- Competitive pricing pressure in Japan display.
- One Singapore client asked about the November account-security communications during a renewal conversation; the account team provided the approved reassurance and the renewal proceeded. No commercial impact.

5. Outlook

APAC is expected to remain the fastest-growing region into FY2026, led by India mobile and Australia/NZ retail and travel, with constant-currency growth in the low-to-mid teens. Pipeline is healthy (DR-038).

Reported figures unaudited; constant-currency growth excludes translation effects.
