2. Insuring agreements (summary)

- Privacy and network-security liability, including unauthorised access to or acquisition of personal data.
- Regulatory defence and penalties arising from a covered privacy event, subject to the sublimit above and to insurability at law.
- Breach-response costs, including notification, credit monitoring and public-relations costs through the insurer's panel.
- Cyber business interruption and digital asset restoration.

3. Conditions precedent and notice

Notice of circumstances (Condition 7.2). The insured shall give written notice to the insurer, through the broker, as soon as practicable and in any event within 45 days of any director or officer, the General Counsel, the Chief Information Security Officer or the Director of Treasury & Insurance becoming aware of any circumstance reasonably likely to give rise to a claim under this policy. Failure to give notice within the 45-day period may entitle the insurer to decline cover for the relevant claim to the extent it is prejudiced.

Awareness. For the purposes of Condition 7.2, awareness arises when a relevant officer first knows, or ought reasonably to know, of facts indicating that a claim may result — and is not deferred until the insured has completed its own investigation or received a final report.

4. Principal exclusions

- Prior known events. The policy does not cover any claim arising out of, based upon or attributable to any act, error, circumstance, incident or event of which any relevant officer was aware, or any notice of which had been given under any prior policy, before the inception of this policy year; nor any matter that, as at inception, a reasonable person in the insured's position would have expected to give rise to a claim.
- Bodily injury and property damage (save as expressly extended).
- Prior and pending matters scheduled as known at inception.
- Fines and penalties to the extent uninsurable as a matter of applicable law.
- Failure to maintain agreed minimum security controls, including failure to rotate cryptographic keys and to retire end-of-life systems in accordance with the insured's own policies, where such failure materially contributes to the loss.

5. Other terms

Retroactive date	1 July 2021
Territory	Worldwide, where permitted by law
Defence	Insurer-appointed panel; insured co-operation required
Subrogation	Insurer rights preserved; waiver only by endorsement
Governing law	State of Delaware, USA

Summary only. The 45-day notice condition and the prior-known-events exclusion are material to any claim. Claims handling and notice status are tracked separately (see the insurance claims and recoveries schedule, DR-030, and the draft notice at DR-082).
