

Employment Law Matters

Employment Law Matters — Summary

Document ID	DR-091
Prepared by / owner	Hannah Brooks
Date	15 December 2025
Classification	Strictly Confidential — Project Atlas

Employment Law Matters — Summary. This memorandum summarises the Company's open employment-law matters and disputes. The portfolio is within the ordinary course for an organisation of the Company's size, and reserves have been recognised on the standard basis.

Prepared by	Hannah Brooks, Deputy General Counsel
As at	15 December 2025
Standard reserve basis	Probable and estimable matters only
External counsel	Marsh & Eldon LLP (employment)

1. Open matters

Ref	Type	Summary	Stage	Reserve
EMP-2025-04	Wrongful termination	Former mid-level manager alleges unfair dismissal; Company defending on performance grounds.	Defending — discovery	$0.3m–$0.5m
EMP-2025-06	Discrimination	Former employee alleges discriminatory treatment; Company contests facts.	At pleadings	$0.2m–$0.4m
EMP-2025-09	Wage & hour (contractor)	Misclassification claim by a former contractor.	Mediation scheduled	$0.2m–$0.3m
EMP-2025-11	Grievance — internal	Internal grievance resolved through process; no proceedings.	Closed	Nil

2. Policies and compliance

- Standard employment policies, handbooks and contracts are in place and periodically reviewed.
- No collective-bargaining disputes are open.
- Whistleblowing and grievance procedures operate in the ordinary course.
- Reductions in force, where conducted, follow the Company's standard process.

3. Assessment

The open matters are individually and collectively immaterial and are adequately reserved on the standard basis. No matter in this portfolio is expected to have a material adverse effect on the Company. Matters relating to attrition within specific functions are addressed in the HR materials (see DR-094 and DR-095) and are not duplicated here.

Ordinary-course employment matters only. Maintained by the Office of the General Counsel with Marsh & Eldon LLP.